Case Begun Years Ago Involving Many Financiers, in U. S. Court at Last.

FOUR MONTHS AT LEAST NEEDED FOR TESTIMONY

After at least eight years of private attack and nearly as many years of official investigation twelve former directors of the New York. New Haven and Hartford Railroad, out of twenty-one originally indicted, are called to face trial in the United States court here this morning on a charge of having con-spired to monopolize the transportation facilities of New England. The men who are to be called to the bar before Circuit Court Judge William H. Hunt are:

William Rockefeller, George MacCulJoch Miller, Charles F. Brooker, D. Newton Barney, Robert W. Taft, Lewis Cass
Ledyard, Charles M. Pratt, A. Heaton
Robertson, James S. Hemingway, F. F.
Brewster, Henry K. McHarg and E. D.
Robbins.

Robbins.
George F. Baker, T. De Witt Cuyler,
Theodore N. Vail, Francis T. Maxwell,
Edward Milligan and Alexander Cochrane have been granted a trial separate from the first one, while James S. Elton, William Skinner and John L. Billard were granted immunity because of testfmony required of them before other bodies.

Case May Take Four Months.

The case which is to come on to-day in the history of the Department of Justice, on the criminal side. This is not only because of the prominence of the men indicted, but because of the voluminousness of the matter to be presented as evidence. Every act of the New Haven directorate looking toward the acquisition of any property whatsoever from 1890 down to a day within three years of the finding of the indictment on February 26 of this year has been investigated, analyzed according to the theory of the prosecution and set forth.

JUST A SPIRITUAL UNION

At 8 o'clock, five hours after a second injection of the preparation, which was so dramatically rushed from Washington Monday—too late, it is feared now—the doctors had said Mr. Stackpole was holding his own.

The indications of his waking hours earlier in the day were unfavorable. Although maintaining his unfaltering cheer, the patient seemed less inclined to talk than on previous days, the constrictions of his throat made his breathing more labored, and his temperature ing more labored, and his temperature slowly rose until it reached 103 de-grees. Here it stood swortly after mon when Miss Daisy L. Johnson and Victor A. Kilian were married last evening at the home of the bride, 179 Winfield avenue, Jersey City. The union is to last only as long as love reigns, according to the terms of the ceremony performed by the Rev. Bouck White, pastor of the Church of the Social Revolution.

The wedding, aside from the peculiar nature of the union, which was announced by the Rev. Mr. White from his soulpit last Sunday was not in any way in the series of the second injection.
